

Name:

1. As you examine the picture write an interpretation about what you think it means (about what emotions it provokes, what images you see in your head, what was the artist trying to say, etc . . .) This interpretation will not be graded; please write freely and do not worry about grammar or spelling.
2. Now, examine the picture again. Read the quote by Bourgeois and think of this picture in relation to the Holocaust. Please write your interpretation of this picture when you consider the quote and the Holocaust. Again, this writing will not be graded; write freely and do not worry about grammar and spelling.
